How to Play Blokus (Complete Rules)

Blokus is a spatial strategy board game where players compete to place all 21 of their pieces onto the board while blocking opponents and expanding their territory.

Game Overview

Players	2–4
Components	20x20 board, 84 pieces (21 per player)
Objective	Place as many pieces as possible
Key Rule	Own pieces must touch at corners only
Winning	Highest score after game ends

Placement Rules

- First piece must cover your starting corner
- Each new piece must touch your color at a corner
- Your pieces cannot touch edge-to-edge
- Opponent pieces may touch freely
- Once placed, pieces cannot be moved

Scoring

- Count unit squares in unused pieces
- Subtract from your score
- +15 points for placing all 21 pieces
- +5 extra if last piece was the single square

Strategy Tips

- Play large pieces early while space is open
- Expand into multiple board areas
- Block opponents from reaching open space
- Always leave a free corner for future moves
